July 2012 Insider

Office Closure

Management office will be closed on Wednesday July 4th, 2012 in observance of Independence Day. Please remember no moves, major deliveries or repair work permitted on Holidays! Office will re-open on Thursday July 5th, 2012

CHANGES TO VISITOR PARKING

No doubt many of you received our notice regarding the latest changes to our parking situation. As a reminder our new visitor parking procedures will allow your guest to park in any visitor parking stall of their choice instead of being assigned a stall as before. These passes will also allow your visitor to park in your personal stall ONLY if Security is notified by your Guest and you have authorized it. Also, owners will now have the privilege of parking in visitor parking but for 15 minutes only since we would like to have these stalls available for our guests. Thank you to all residents for adjusting to the changes.
